

FISCAL NOTE

HB 575 - SB 917

March 8, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires a person convicted of a crime to remain on probation until restitution, fines, court costs, and taxes have been paid in full.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes some additional cost for extending time on probation.

The court considers probationer's ability to pay when establishing restitution.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James A. Davenport".

James A. Davenport, Executive Director